Program Details;

Dates: February 9th-March 9th (4 weeks) or February 9th-March 16th (5 weeks)

Tentative schedule:

- Interns work at school on all scheduled class days. School hours (8:15am – 3:00pm)
- Host families provide transportation to and from school each day
- Interns assist teachers with students and other class activities
- Some planned group activities
- Evenings, weekends, and holidays are spent with host families
- Family activities can include: children's sports, family outings, weekend sightseeing trips, church and church activities, etc.
- Breakfast and dinners provided by host families daily
- Lunch (pack lunch/school lunch/purchase at nearby store/ provided by coordinator) when school in session or by host family on no school days

Cost: Host Student Fee — 4 weeks stay = Total $900.00, or 5 weeks stay = Total $1075.00

Trip costs and other expenses are not covered with the above cost. You are expected to get your own flights, trip insurance to and from Eugene Airport, in Oregon. Please ask coordinator for more information.

This opportunity is to provide you with the working knowledge of an immersion school. The interns will work directly with students with the direction of the Japanese teachers. The interns and host families have the opportunity for cultural exchanges. You may increase your working knowledge of English and help our students learn better Japanese.
